

ACCREDITATION TAGS FOR COACHES

The Accreditation policy for Professional Coaches was developed by Skate Canada to ensure standards for the coaching community and subsequently promote the integrity of the professional coach. It also helps manage the number of professional coaches at events and ensures the safety of athletes, coaches and the skating family.

Please note that the following NCCP certification levels are required for accreditation at the following upcoming events in Canada.

Alberta-NWT/Nunavut STARSkate Runoffs and Finals		Level 1
HomeSense National STARSkate		Level 1
BMO Financial Group Sectionals		Level 2
BMO Financial Eastern and Western Challenge		Level 2
BMO Financial Group Junior Nationals	Juvenile/Pre-Novice	Level 2
	Novice	Level 3
BMO Financial Group Canadians		Level 3
ISU International Skating Championships (Canadians)		Level 3
Canada Games		Level 3
Adult Competitions		Level 2
BMO Financial Group Synchronized Skating Competitive stream		Level 3
	Festival Stream	Level 2

Coaches need to ensure they have the appropriate accreditation to attend these events with their skaters. Check dates and locations of the courses being offered starting in May. www.skateabnwtun.com coaches page.

Please check the expiry date on your accreditation tag and allow enough time to get a new one. The expiry date is the same as your first aid certificate expiry date. You may need to update your first aid certificate as well.
